MUSEUM WORKSHOP

This class is open to young people of high school age interested in art history, art education, and careers in museum work. It will include informal gallery talks, slide lectures on art, technical demonstrations, films, and visits to various departments of the Museum. Saturdays, October 14 through May 5, 1:30 to 3:30 P.M. Studio fee, $2.00 each semester.

FREE SATURDAY AFTERNOON ENTERTAINMENT

Beginning September 30, there will be Saturday afternoon entertainment in the Auditorium, beginning at 1:30 P.M. These programs last approximately one hour and a half and are of artistic quality. They consist of movies, plays, puppet shows, and musical programs for children. Adults are not admitted until 1:30 P.M., and only if seats are available. Children under six are not admitted. Consult the Museum CALENDAR or local newspapers for details of each program.

FREE SATURDAY GALLERY CLASSES

For boys and girls (age 6 through 16) who are interested in drawing in the Museum galleries. Classes are arranged according to age level. Saturdays, 9:30 to 11:30 A.M., September 23 through January 20, 1962. Registration for classes will be September 23, 9:00 A.M., in person in the Museum. There will be no advance registration for these classes. Students will be enrolled on a first-come first-served basis. There will be another registration for the Free Saturday Gallery Classes at the beginning of the Spring Semester, February 3, 1962.

SATURDAY CLASSES FOR MEMBERS' CHILDREN

Open to children 6 through 16 years of age. Students are separated by age levels and the size of the classes is limited, 9:30 to 11:30 A.M. or 1:30 to 3:30 P.M. The Museum's collections and the Education Department's permanent classroom space are utilized for these classes. The use of the classrooms provides the opportunity for art work in a wide variety of media and techniques. Studio fee, $2.00 each semester.

PUPPET THEATER CLASS FOR MEMBERS' CHILDREN

Conducted by the Shermans of the Sherman Puppet Theater and open to children 8 through 11 years of age. The children will make their own puppets and participate in the performance of a puppet play. The puppets will be made with materials furnished by the class-- wooden spoons, rubber balls or tin cans--all items which ordinarily are found around the house. September 30 through May 5, 1962. 9:30 to 11:30 A.M. Studio fee, $2.00 each semester.
